Subject: High Tide Line - info on Corps HQ website

Jim,

Afternoon. Just wanted to point out an interesting link that Heather found on the Corps HQ website. <http://www.usace.army.mil/Missions/Civil-Works/Regulatory-Program-and-Permits/>

In this drawing, HQ is indicating that the Highest Tide (High Tide Line) would be the Annual Tide. Interesting...

Thanks
